

Course Title: American Studies

Description:

This course is designed for 7th and 8th grade students. We will explore the social, economic, political, and technological changes in American history from the discovery of the New World to the present day. This course will help students uncover the patterns of events which occurred in our society, consider why these particular events unfolded and how they shaped the United States of America. We will explore the distinctiveness of American values and government and emphasize the importance of appreciating American history.
