

Course Title: Basic Composition

Description:

Do you want to ensure your student is a confident writer with skills that translate into all subjects? Then IEW writing is for you!

This course is for 5th through 7th grade students who have two years or less of IEW writing class experience or are looking to build upon the skills learned in a previous writing class. Students will learn note taking and outlines, writing from notes, retelling narrative stories, summarizing a single reference and multiple references, writing from pictures, inventive writing, formal essays and critiques. Fix-it grammar will be taught within the context of writing and editing. An optional literature component is available for use at home.
